The National Mission for Manuscripts was established by the Ministry of Culture with the purpose of locating, documenting, preserving and disseminating the rich cultural heritage contained in Indian manuscripts. India is the repository of an astounding wealth of manuscripts with distinctive qualities of their own.

The National Mission for Manuscripts with its mandate to document the manuscripts has directed its attention towards sponsoring programmes for the preparation of descriptive catalogues in various repositories.

It is to be noted that Catalogue of Guru Granth Sahib Birs is one of such projects sponsored by the National Mission for Manuscripts. The Guru Granth Sahib is the holy scripture of the followers of Sikhism. Believers even outside the Sikh fold have great faith in and respect for the holy text. The compilation comprises the text of the hymns composed by first five Gurus and supplemented by the compositions of ninth Guru. The hymns, arranged according to the ragas, speak of the spiritual realization, sadhana of cosmic sound (nada) and devotion. Besides, the composition of the Gurus, Guru Granth Sahib contains hymns of earlier saints also, such as Jaidev, Kabir, Namdev, Ravidas and others. Therefore, the importance of this unique Holy Scripture needs no explanation. It is interesting to note that the Gurmukhi script was developed for compiling the Adi Granth of the Sikhs, otherwise Persian was the script used for all other purposes in the Punjabi language for a very long time.

National Institute of Panjab Studies is engaged in publishing a four volume Catalogue of Guru Granth Sahib Manuscripts. Some of the rare Birs even bear the Nisans of the Sikh Gurus. The catalogue will carry the historical details of all the manuscripts along with photographs of the Mool Mantra and will provide details of more than three hundred Guru Granth Sahib Birs written during 17th, 18th and 19th centuries which are in possession of a number of individuals, families and institutions. We hope it would be of immense value to historians, sociologists, litterateurs and devotees.

Introduction

While the Adi Granth was prepared by Guru Arjan Dev with Bhai Gurdas acting as its amanuensis, its origins can be traced to the days of Guru Nanak. According to the popular tradition, upon his enlightenment after re-emergence from the rivulet Kali Bein, Guru Nanak recited Mool Mantra, the primal creed of the Sikh religion. From the Puratan Janamsakhi we learn that during his spiritual journeys Guru Nanak got some of his hymns written by his companions en route. There are also instances when some of his devotees acted as scribes for recording the hymns. We learn that Majh ki Var and Sidh Gosht were scribed by Bhai Saido Gheeho, while Malar ki Var was scribed by Guru's devotees Hassu and Shihan. However, a systematic effort to locate, edit and include the hymns of the Gurus and other Bhaktas and Saints in one volume was made by Guru Arjan Dev, which came to be popularly known as Pothi (Sahib) and later (Adi) Granth and Guru Granth Sahib upon its being declared the Guru Eternal by Guru Gobind Singh.

Growing popularity of the Sikh faith and gradual increase in the number of its followers led to the rejected claimants to Guruship popularizing their writings under the pen-name of Nanak. Therefore, it became important for Guru Arjan Dev to codify the genuine hymns and present them to the community of followers in an authenticated and authorized form.

Guru Arjan Dev collected selections from the writings of Hindu and Muslim saints who were at the same spiritual wavelength as the Sikh Gurus. In this process, he was able to obtain hymns of Kabir, Farid, Namdev, Ravidas and Bhikhan, some of whom belonged to the so-called low castes. Since the bani of Guru Nanak and his predecessors was available in the collection of Baba Mohan, popularly known as Mohan Pothian, Guru Arjan Dev sent Bhai Gurdas to obtain this collection for the Guru. Since Baba Mohan did not part with the pothis, Baba Buddha was subsequently sent on the mission, who also returned without any success. Thereafter, Guru Arjan Dev himself went to Baba Mohan's house. While Baba Mohan was sitting in the attic of his house in Goindwal, the Guru sang melodious hymns from the ground floor. Humility of the Guru greatly moved Baba Mohan who happily agreed to pass on the Pothis.

On return to Amritsar the Guru selected a scenic spot in Ramsar and erected a tent which became his makeshift study for working on the Volume. When the Volume, popularly called Pothi Sahib or the Adi Granth, was completed, with Bhai Gurdas as its amanuensis, the Guru asked one of his devotees, Bhai Banno, to carry it to Lahore for binding. In the process of binding Bhai Banno is believed to have made a copy of the scripture which came to be known as Banno Bir. The original Bir, which remained in the possession of Sodhi descendants of Dhirmal settled at Kartarpur (near Jallandhar in Panjab). came to be known as the Kartarpuri Bir.

The bound volume of the original Bir was taken from Ramsar to the newly built Harmandir Sahib in a procession with due respect and ceremonies befitting the installation. While Baba Buddha respectfully carried the Volume on his head, Guru Arjan Dev followed with a flywhisk. They all marched barefoot and installed the Volume in the sanctum sanctorum of the Harimandir Sahib in August 1604.

Since printing or any other mode of making copies of the scripture was not available in those days, making handwritten copies of the Bir was considered an act of religious merit. Devotees spent months and years copying the Birs for the benefit of the congregation. However, a survey of some of the rare Guru Granth Sahib Birs pertaining to the 17th and 18th centuries shows that in spite of the Guru's disapproval of the Bano Bir, its copies were being made along-side the Kartarpuri Bir.

Since the Guru's rivals, the Sodhis of Kartarpur, refused to part with the original volume called Kartarpuri Bir. Guru Gobind Singh, the tenth Guru, got another Bir prepared with Bhai Mani Singh as its amanuensis. As this was prepared at a place called Damdama it came to be popularly known as the Damdami Bir. Apart from the contents of Kartarpuri Bir, this volume also included hymns of Guru Tegh Bahadur. Baba Deep Singh is believed to have prepared five copies of this Granth which were installed at what are now known as Panj Takhats, five seats of temporal authority of the Sikhs. It is this version of the Granth that provides the authentic text of the printed Guru Granth Sahib and consists of 1430 standard pages in addition to the index generally printed in one volume by the Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee, Amritsar. Ever since elevation of the Granth as the Guru Eternal by Guru Gobind Singh at Nanded in 1708 for the Sikhs all over the world, Shabad, (the Word) has become the Guru.

As far as Guru Granth Sahib manuscripts are concerned, it has been an established practice of the scribes to compare their copies with the original Kartarpuri Bir, popularly called Vadda Granth (Big Book). It was believed that a Granth compared and corrected with the Vadda Granth becomes shudh (correct and acceptable). Those who did not have access to the original Granth in Kartarpur did so by comparing their copies with any other reliable copy of the Book. Different handwritten copies of the Guru Granth came to be associated with the names of their scribes or places where they were prepared. Thus, apart from Kartarpuri, Bano and Damdami Bir we also have Bahowalwali Bir, Lahori Bir, Pushkar Bir and the Bir associated with Jagna Brahman, who is mentioned by Bhai Gurdas among prominent Sikhs who died fighting for Guru Hargobind in the battle of Amritsar. In his latest book, A Study of Guru Granth Sahib: Doctrine, Social Content, History, Structure and Status, Prof. J. S. Grewal talks about some rare Guru Granth Sahib Birs which pre-date the Kartarpuri Bir installed at the Harimander Sahib in 1604.

With the passage of time, hundreds of handwritten copies of the Guru Granth Sahib were prepared for installation in the Gurdwaras. With the establishment of Maharaja Ranjit Singh's rule in Punjab and induction of eminent Pahari and Kashmiri artists and scribes into his court, some of the most beautifully illustrated copies of the Guru Granth Sahib were created. Therefore, we find many illuminated Birs with Islamic and Hindu influences available in different repositories. The Akal Takhat Sahib, Takhat Sri Kesgarh Sahib, Takhat Damdama Sahib, Takhat Patna Sahib, Takhat Sri Hazur Sahib, the Punjabi University, Patiala, the National Museum, New Delhi, the Chief Khalsa Diwan, Amritsar, Bhai Vir Singh Sahitya Sadan, New Delhi, and some private families have a number of illuminated copies of Guru Granth manuscripts in their collections.

While a large number of Guru Granth Sahib manuscripts, including some very rare ones such as the Kartarpuri Bir prepared under the direct supervision of Guru Arjan Dev, the Damdami Bir prepared under the direct supervision of Guru Gobind Singh and other copies with Mool Mantra inscribed in the hands of the Gurus are available, no comprehensive catalogue or any such account of the Guru Granth Sahib manuscripts was prepared and kept under the control of Akal Takhat or any other central Sikh authority. As a result, with the passage of time some of the rare copies have either changed hands or simply disappeared. No one knows the fate of the first five volumes of the Damdami Bir prepared by Baba Deep Singh and sent to different Takhats. Similarly one does not know for sure which is the Guru Granth manuscript, that was bestowed Guruship by Guru Gobind Singh before his death at Hazur Sahib, Nanded, in 1708 A.D.

While no one knows the exact number of Guru Granth manuscripts presently available whether copied from Kartarpuri, Banno or Damdami Birs, there are scholars who have tried to locate them and have worked on different Birs available with different institutions and individuals, notable among them being G. B. Singh, Pritam Singh, Piar Singh, Pashaura Singh, Gurinder Mann and Jeevan Deol. The British Library (earlier known as the India Office Library), London, is a rich repository of rare Guru Granth Sahib manuscripts. In addition to copy of the Kartarpuri Bir transcribed by Sodhi Sadhu Singh for presentation to Queen Victoria (popularly known as Valayatwali Bir), there are many other rare Birs as mentioned in the catalogues of Dr. J. F. Blumhardt and Dr. C. Shackle and in the unpublished doctoral thesis of Dr. Harpreet Kaur.

A careful study of the works of these scholars shows that many of the rare manuscripts quoted in G. B. Singh's pioneering work Sri Guru Granth Sahib Dian Prachin Biran, first published in 1944, have since disappeared.

With a view to creating awareness for the conservation of this precious tangible heritage of the Sikh community, the National Institute of Panjab Studies took up a major project of "Locating, Cataloguing and Digitizing rare Guru Granth Sahib Manuscripts" in different parts of India and abroad in collaboration with Professor Sahib Singh Gurmat Trust, Patiala. In the course of our field work we have been able to locate and catalogue nearly three hundred rare Guru Granth Sahib Birs out of which more than two hundred have already been digitised. In order to share the benefit of our field work with interested scholars we have decided to bring out an illustrated Catalogue in four volumes giving basic information about this precious tangible heritage. This Catalogue carries historical details of all the Guru Granth Sahib manuscripts along with photographs of the Mool Mantra and the last page, some of the illustrations and colophons, wherever available, have also been incorporated in the volume. At the end of the description of the Bir we have given serial number of the digitised bir through which each volume can be located by those who wish to study the details. The First volume of the Catalogue includes Birs in Panjab written during seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth centuries.

Celebration of cenetenaries of some important events of Sikh history has created awareness for the preservation of this tangible heritage. Anandpur Sahib Foundation, the Nanakshahi Trust, Professor Sahib Singh Gurmat Trust and the National Institute of Panjab Studies are working on projects leading to conservation of the heritage at home. Palo Alto based Sikh Foundation headed by Dr. N. S. Kapany has taken up conservation of Sikh heritage in a big way. We hope this catalogue will help create needed awareness for the conservation of tangible Sikh heritage in the form of rare Guru Granth Sahib manuscripts.

For the field work we got financial support from the National Manuscripts Mission, Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts and the Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Management Committee, New Delhi, which we gratefully acknowledge. Shiromani Gurdwara Prabandhak Committee; Chief Khalsa Diwan, Amritsar; Guru Nanak Dev University; Punjabi University, Patiala; Panjab University, Chandigarh; Takhat Sri Harmandir Sahib, Patna; Takhat Sri Hazur Sahib, Nanded; Panjab Languages Dept., Patiala; Punjab State Archives, Chandigarh and Bhai Vir Singh Sahitya Sadan, New Delhi, are some of the prominent repositories which have permitted us to catalogue and digitise rare Guru Granth Sahib manuscripts in their collections. We wish to acknowledge our gratitude to all these organisations.

Prof. Gurinder Mann, Prof. Pashaura Singh, Dr. Joginder Singh Ahluwalia, Dr. Rajwant Singh Chilana, Dr. Navneet Kaur, Ms. Susan Stronge, Dr. Nadhra Khan, and Prof. Nurul Islam, have helped us with useful information from various repositories in India and abroad. Prof. Bipan Chandra, Dr. J. S. Neki, Prof. B. N. Goswami and Prof. Manjit Singh have been generous in guiding the Institute's team in the preparation of this Catalogue. As usual my colleagues Kuljeet Singh & Sarbjit Singh have devoted most of their time and energy in the planning and execution of this volume. We also wish to record our obligation to the National Manuscripts Mission, Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts for their financial support for the publication of this Catalogue. Mr. Bhupinder Chowdhri of the Himalayan Books has taken personal interest in the timely publication of this volume. This project was initiated under the guidance of our Acting President Dr. Amrik Singh to whose memory we dedicate this volume.

Guru Granth Sahib
Rare Manuscripts

Title: Adi Bir
Date: Samvat 1842 Magh Badi (1785 AD)

Accession No. MSG 62 is a pothi-style Guru Granth Sahib Manuscript placed at Bhai Gurdas Library, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. The folio count is 1 to 854 and each folio measures as 35X45 cm and the writing space occupies 25X36 cm only.

Bound in cardboard and cloth, the writing is in black ink. Most of the folios in the manuscript have 21 line divisions and the same pattern is followed in the two-sided Index (tatkara).

The manuscript is threadbare and so are the folios. Very fine handwriting throughout except for a few places, where the script moves outside the ruler (hashia). Formula of Ink (Siahi ki bidhi) and details about the samvat are delineated.

The detailed 45 folios Index (tatkara) is arranged in the beginning with aesthetically designed vertical lines. Folio number 853 has been mentioned with Slok Mahla 1 as:
Jit darr lakh mahmad salok
mehle pehle de aabkhak,
Ratan mala, aajan sadhini,
Hakikat shivnabh,

Followed by Raagmala (series of melody) and Siahi ki bidhi. At the end of tatkara, details of the death (Challitter Joti Jot Samavna) of the Gurus till Guru Tegh Bahadur are mentioned. The actual Granth starts after a few blank leaves from here.

This Bir is a part of the digitised collection with the National Institute of Panjab Studies, Bhai Vir Singh Sahitya Sadan.

Date: Samvat 1858 (1801 AD)

Accession No. MSG 64 is a pothi-style Guru Granth Sahib Manuscript placed at Bhai Gurdas Library, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. The folio count is 1 to 651 and each folio measures as 30X36 cm and the writing space occupies 23X28 cm only.

Bound in cardboard and cloth, the writing is in black ink while the outer and inner rule (hashia) is in red colour. Most of the folios in the manuscript have 25 line divisions and the same pattern is followed in the two-sided Index (tatkara). A 30 page index in the beginning carries the detailed description of the musical modes (ragas) and the sacred compositions (bani). On folio no 31, details of the death (Joti Jot Samavna) of the Gurus till Guru Tegh Bahadur are mentioned along with Baba Gurditta.

Handwriting is fine and comprehensible. A few initial pages of the manuscript are ripped from the binding, while the remaining Granth assumes good shape, except for the last few folios which are partially worn out and tattered starting from folio no 648. These folios are indecipherable. A few ruled blank pages are seen between folios 31 to 33.

A few stories of the Gurus (Sakhiyan) are also specified at the end.

This Bir is a part of the digitised collection with the National Institute of Panjab Studies, Bhai Vir Singh Sahitya Sadan.

Accession No. MSG 65 is a pothi-style Guru Granth Sahib Manuscript placed at Bhai Gurdas Library, Amritsar. The folio count is 1 to 1054 and each folio measures as 30X37 cm and the writing space occupies 19X29 cm only.

Bound in cardboard and cloth, the writing is in black ink with the outer and inner rule (hashia) in vertical, demarcated with three lines. While most of the folios in the manuscript have 18 line divisions, 19 line division-pattern is followed in the two-sided Index (tatkara).

The calligraphy of this Granth bears a resemblance to Granths/Pothis of yore and a few alphabets look a lot like earliest writing style. 47 folios Index (tatkara) is given in the beginning of the Granth. Sawaiyyas of Kabir and Sheikh Farid coupled with slokas of others, Jit darr lakh Mahammada, Goshtha Mahla 1 Ramkali, Ratanmala, Hakikat Raje Shivnabh ki, Raagmala and Sakhi panch karam ki form a part of this section. Besides, details of the death (Chalitarr Joti Jot Samavna) of the Gurus, date of writing the Granth (Bhadau Suti Panchmi), are mentioned.

Slokas by the ninth Guru are proceeded by Raagmala and description of Joti jot samavna from the first Guru to the ninth. Brief mention of Baba Gurditta is followed by Siahi ki bidhi. The sakhi of Panj Karam is inscribed at the end.

This Bir is a part of the digitised collection with the National Institute of Panjab Studies, Bhai Vir Singh Sahitya Sadan.

Accession No. MSG 66 is a pothi-style Guru Granth Sahib Manuscript placed at Bhai Gurdas Library, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. The folio count is 1 to 719 and each folio measures as 23X29 cm and the writing space occupies 16X24 cm only.

Bound in cardboard and cloth, the writing is in black ink while the double lined outer and inner rule (hashia) is in red colour.

Most of the folios in the manuscript have 25 line divisions and the same pattern is followed in the two-sided Index (tatkara).

With fairly clear handwriting and good condition, the Granth is damp. The text is seen outside the rule both the sides at various places. Detailed index (tatkara) is given in the beginning. At places intermittently, the writing of the text is also illegible and difficult to read. The last portion includes "Sloka Mahla 1 Malar Naal Gosht Hoi, Sloka Mahla 1 Ikonkar Satguru Prasad, Ratanmala, Hakikat Raje Shivnabh Di, Raagmala, Siahi Ki Bidhi" and "Chalittar Joti Jot Samavne Ka".

Accession No. MSG 73 is a Guru Granth Sahib Manuscript originally sourced from S. Jasbir Singh Sabar, Gurdwara Guru Ka Bagh, Banaras, presently kept at Bhai Gurdas Library, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. The folio count is 1 to 775 and each folio measures as 23X35 cm and the writing space occupies 15X26 cm only.

Bound in cardboard and cloth, the writing is in black ink while the outer and inner rule (hashia) is in red colour with a sandwiched black line. Most of the folios in the manuscript have generally 23 line divisions and the same pattern is followed in the two-sided Index (tatkara).

The Granth begins with details of the demise (Joti Jot Samavna) of the Gurus till Guru Tegh Bahadur followed by detailed description of the musical modes (ragas) and the sacred compositions (bani). The completion of the Granth, Samvat 1760 Magh Sudi, is given in the beginning only. The handwriting is beautiful and is seen outside the rule at various places.

A few pages also have designed Siari (the short stress in Gurmukhi script) and Biari (the long stress in Gurmukhi script).

This Bir is a part of the digitised collection with the National Institute of Panjab Studies, Bhai Vir Singh Sahitya Sadan.

Accession No. MSG 74 is a Guru Granth Sahib Manuscript originally sourced from S. Jasbir Singh Sabar, Gurdwara Guru Ka Bagh, Banaras, presently placed at Bhai Gurdas Library, Amritsar. The folio count is 1 to 619 and each folio measures as 22X32 cm and the writing space occupies 16X25 cm only.

Bound in cardboard and cloth, the writing is in black ink while the outer and inner rule (hashia) is in red colour with double vertical lines on both the sides. Most of the folios in the manuscript have 30 line divisions and the same pattern is followed in the two-sided Index (tatkara).

Granth is in book style. Handwriting is not very clear and a few pages have blot as well. A few alphabets are written in old Punjabi style writing and text is seen in the margins as well. The condition of the Granth is reasonably fine.

The first 24-25 folios form Index followed by details of the demise (Joti Jot Samavna) of the Gurus till Guru Tegh Bahadur. The index is based on ragas here.

This Bir is a part of the digitised collection with the National Institute of Panjab Studies, Bhai Vir Singh Sahitya Sadan.

Guru Granth Sahib
Rare Manuscripts

Title: Bani Guru Sahibaan
Accession No. MS 1245 is a pothi-style Guru Granth Sahib Manuscript placed at Bhai Gurdas Library, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. The folio count is 1 to 1266 and each folio measures as 7X12 cm.

The first four pages are decorated and the writing on the third folio suggests that it is in the hand of Baba Budha. The fourth folio is seen with Mangla Charan in the hand of the sixth Guru, Hargobind. Nisan of Guru Tegh Bahadur is believed to be pasted in the Bir.

Bound in cardboard and cloth, the writing is in black ink while the outer and inner rule (hashia) is in multiple colours. The folios in the manuscript have varying line divisions and the same pattern is followed in the two-sided Index (tatkara). A 30 page index in the beginning carries the detailed description of the musical modes (ragas) and the sacred compositions (bani).

Handwriting is old style yet fine and legible. A few initial pages of the manuscript are ripped from the binding, while the remaining Granth is in good shape, except for the last few folios which are partially worn out and tattered.

This Bir is a part of the digitised collection with the National Institute of Panjab Studies, Bhai Vir Singh Sahitya Sadan.

Accession no. NIPS/OL/194
